Bicentennial Moment: On April 12, Easter Sunday of 1903, Msgr. Michael Bouchet died. Monsignor Bouchet was one of the best-known priests of the diocese at the end of the nineteenth century, serving as vicar-general, rector of the Cathedral, and founder of The Record newspaper. Bouchet was a linguist and inventor who built an experimental typewriter and wrote a fantasy story about a trip to the moon. Friendly and approachable, Bouchet was an especially popular confessor. On the eve of his death, he heard confessions at the Cathedral for more than eight hours.
Serving God's People Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

Stewardship thought: "I came so that they may have life and have it more abundantly." John 10:10

An abundant life comes not from gathering or hoarding possessions but in giving of ourselves.
