Bicentennial Moment: The first religious community in the West began on April 25, 1812 when three young women, Mary Rhodes, Christina Stuart and Ann Havern, who conducted a school at the St., Charles congregation on Hardin's Creek, received a rule of religious life from Father Charles Nerinckx. By the end of the century, the ministry of Sisters of Loretto at the Foot of the Cross spread within Kentucky and the American states of Missouri, Kansas, New Mexico, Colorado, Texas, California and Arizona. Serving God's People Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

Stewardship thought: "... the one who believes in me will do the works that I do, and in fact will do greater ones than these." John 14:12

Stewardship is a faith response. The good works we perform are the result of our faith, not the cause of our faith. Stewardship flows from a genuine faith conversion.
