Bicentennial Moment: In late April 1918, a national training center for Catholic chaplains was established at Camp Taylor in Louisville. The chaplain training corps began with 22 members from across the United States. At this time, Camp Taylor also became known for the close cooperation and friendly relations among Catholic chaplains and their colleagues who served recruits from other faith traditions.

Serving God’s People Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

Stewardship thought: “...Sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make a defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you.” 1 Peter 3:15

Actions speak louder than words. Let your stewardship be your reply. Stewardship involves a change of heart, embodied not just in a single action, nor ever a series of actions, but in a way of living.

REMINDER FROM THE STEWARDSHIP TEAM: Please take a few minutes to fill out the survey form you received in the mail. Drop it in the collection, bring it to the parish office or mail it to 491 E Broadway. Your input is important to us for future planning.

Recently Baptized: Bailey Bennett, son of Caleb & Samantha Bennett, Madison Nicole Biddle, daughter of Scotty Biddle, Cade Henderson, son of Michael & Emily Henderson, Caden McCoy, son of Chris & Rebecca McCoy, Lillian Rogers, daughter of Frank & Diane Rogers, Roger Jarrett Fackler and Chase French sons of Roger & Allison Fackler were baptized April 13th. Congratulations to these families.

Baptism Preparation: The next baptism preparation class is scheduled for May 8, 2008. The class is from 7-9 p.m. in Room B of the parish center. Call the parish office to register for the class. You must be registered at St. John's and attend the class before the baptism. You may attend before your child is born. Parents must attend and Godparents are welcome also.

CALLING ALL SINGERS: Come join us in church on Tuesday, April 29, at 6:30 p.m. for music rehearsal for our Sunday liturgies. For information call Sue Foushee, 828-2778, or email msfoushee@bbtel.com.

Archdiocesan policy requires six months advance notice of intention to marry and participation in an approved program of preparation for the Sacrament of Matrimony. Couples planning to marry in the next year should contact Father Paul now.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Religious Ed classes for the year will end this Wednesday, April 30 at the middle school. Parents are invited to join us in the commons area at 7:40 for closing prayer and refreshments. All grades will have class that night.

Confirmation meeting: Those going on the trip next Sunday will meet in the parking lot at 10:30. Those not going will meet in church at 2 pm with sponsors.

Congratulations to our children receiving First Communion this weekend: Ryan Allgeier, Zach Babb, Madeline Beavin, Taylor Beck, Madison Biddle, William Blevins, Lauren Brangers, Jarrett Fackler, Josie Fackler, Connor Ferguson, Haley Gable, Meg Haynes, Spencer Jenks, Sydney King, Johnathan Martin, Krysta Medley, Lauren Millay, Zachary Mofield, Colton Nevitt, Aliana Novak, Emily Parker, Meg Powers, Cameron Ray, Colten Smith Cole Vessels and Matthew Wimpee. Please keep them in your prayers.
